Citytech is the most accredited B2B event dedicated to urban mobility in Italy: the initiative brings together all the innovations and best practices of the sector both nationally and internationally, thus becoming a moment of meeting and discussion for leading companies, startups, institutions, stakeholders, investors and media. A perfect stage for identifying, presenting and listening to innovative and effective proposals that can guide and shape the future of mobility in the cities of the 3rd millennium

But not only: inserted in the beautiful framework of Piazza Castello, this year Citytech also becomes a B2C event, open to the public and citizens who can visit the exhibition areas, attend conferences, test the most innovative services and products available

The conference program will address all the trendiest issues of the moment: efficiency and safety of public transport, policies for the management of open spaces, new times of the city and smart working, sharing mobility, electric vehicles, charging infrastructures, micro-mobility, connectivity, big data and solutions for parking.

Organized with the City of Milan, the event reaches its eighth edition and will be held in novembre Piazza Castello on 23rd and 24th of September 2021
